Check List:

- Is the Bible truth universally understood by children and adults?
- Are the songs/music chosen known by all ages? Do they demonstrate a variety of musical styles, from slow to fast tempo?
- Are there opportunities for interaction between worshippers?
- Is the entire congregation involved in the service or just a few people?
- Does the prayer time involve everyone? (not just altar call)
- How is the sermon time planned to capture everyone's attention and help children to focus?
- Are there opportunities for movement?
