

Sharpened to Lead

Guest Presenter: Brian Dollar

Leadership sounds very "exciting" to many people. The truth is, leadership in ministry can be very intimidating and downright scary to some. If you attempt to lead a ministry or organization without the right set of skills in place, you could fail – big time. In this session, Brian Dollar will share from his 20+ years of experience about his successes and failures in Children's Ministry. In the process, he will share Five Key Skills that EVERY leader must possess and practice. You will be challenged, entertained, and encouraged.

Five Skills Every Leader Must Continually SHARPEN:

1) Being an _____, not a _____.

- Duplication is _____.
- Duplication is _____.
- Duplication rarely produces _____ results.

"But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well." - Matthew 6:33

2) Identifying and developing other _____.

- We think we're _____ to recruit and equip a team.
- We're afraid to _____.
- Our _____ get in the way.

3) Being a good _____.

- I _____ for my pastor and his family daily.
- I look for opportunities to _____.
- I _____ accountability instead of forcing my pastor to _____ it.
- I keep my _____ quiet.
- I express heartfelt _____.

4) Keeping a _____ perspective.

5) Staying connected to the _____.

"To this end I labor, struggling with all HIS energy, which so powerfully works in me." – Colossians 1:29
