

SHOW NOTES

On Calling and Assignment

Guest: Kathryn H. Creasy

Personal Reflection

After hearing Kathy's story of calling, how do you describe your calling?

Struggles in Embracing Your Calling

- Gideon complex
- Fear
- Lack of Modeling
- Being Consumed by of Career and Responsibilities

Overcoming Others Opinions

- Admit that you have fear and concerns
- Consider the alternative reactions without fear
- Allow God to confirm, affirm, and reaffirm

"Look back to look forward with confidence."

How can you help emerging leaders walk in their calling?

- Remember and engage the pain of your time as a young leader.
- Affirm gifts and callings.

How has intimacy with God helped you better embrace your calling?

- Spiritual disciplines are humans acknowledging our dependence on God.
- Dependence opens us to receive God's abundance in ministry.

"Those who have joined their faith with mine."

"Our calling is lived out in a community of believers."

"When we have a calling on our lives, whatever it is, God has already brought people who will join their faith with ours."

On Calling and Assignment

- Our purpose is why we are on earth. Calling is the path we take to fulfill our purpose. The assignments are the tasks we do along the way.

When Calling and Assignment Don't Seem to Align

- God is always at work in our lives and He redeems.
- Proverbs 16:9

Identifying Calling

- Return to your purpose. Your purpose is to glorify God.
- Calling is secondary to your purpose.
- Recommit to your purpose.
- Calling is not appointment or position.
- Every believer has a calling.
- Get off the sidelines and serve.
